This matter comes before the South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department), upon application of David E. Belton, Esquire, Senior Associate General Counsel for the Department, requesting the revocation of Gloria P. Jacobs', (Producer) resident producer's license.

Producer is currently a South Carolina resident producer.

In the State of South Carolina, the producer was convicted of the crime of Grand Larceny, rental object, $5,000 or more, on 01/15/2008 by the Richland County Court of General Sessions.

In the State of South Carolina, the producer failed to report this conviction to this Department.

In the State of South Carolina, the producer failed to respond to the Department's Notices of Investigation, after having signed confirmation of receipt on April 8, 2008.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-130(A)(B) (A): "The Director of Insurance or his designee may place on probation, suspend, or suspend a producer's license after ten days' notice or refuse to issue or reissue a license when it appears that a producer has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, has violated this title or any regulation promulgated by the department, or has willfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State. (B) For purposes of this section. "convicted" includes a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, and the record of conviction, or a copy of it, certified by the clerk of court or by the judge in whose court the conviction occurred is conclusive evidence of the conviction. Because the crime of Grand Larceny is both a felony and a crime of moral turpitude, the Department now moves to revoke Gloria P. Jacobs' South Carolina resident producer license.

Pursuant to SC Code Section 38-43-247(A)(B). (A): "A producer shall report to the Director or his designee any administrative action taken against the producer in another jurisdiction, or by another governmental agency in this State, within thirty days of the final disposition of the matter. This report shall include a copy of the Order, Consent to Order, or other relevant documents. (B): "Within thirty days of the initial pretrial date, a producer shall report to the Insurance Director any criminal prosecution of the producer taken in any jurisdiction. The report shall include a copy of the initial complaint filed, the order resulting from the hearing and any other relevant legal documents." Because Gloria P. Jacobs failed to report to this Department her criminal conviction of Grand Larceny, more than $5,000, the Department now moves to revoke her resident producer license.

THEREFORE, it is ordered that Gloria P. Jacobs, South Carolina resident producer's license shall be revoked thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of this order, and no license issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to her, unless Gloria P. Jacobs requests in writing within said thirty (30) day period a public hearing before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the National Association of Insurance Commissioners be immediately be notified of this order.

This South Carolina Department of Insurance administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2007). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." S.C. Code Ann. §38-3-110(3) (Supp. 2007).
